Awards and Quiz Night 2025

Farewell to 2025.....

Winter can often be a time for reflection and for our trusty volunteers, it is no different. As a group, we regularly assess the aspects of our work that have worked, and those that perhaps haven't. Overall though, it feels that most tasks have been extremely successful! Despite being in the depths of winter, our planters and growing areas are still full of foliage and in some cases flowers! Therefore as we have worked so hard during the growing season, it seems only right to give our volunteers some well deserved respite over the festive season.

Looking back, October saw another fun-filled evening at our annual Awards and Quiz night. As seen by the picture to the left, we had a fantastic range of raffle prizes; some kindly donated by local businesses and others from our loyal volunteers. So thank you all.

December saw the return of the Miner's Chapel annual Christmas Tree Festival with this year's theme being 'Christmas Songs'. The group were thrilled that 'Drunk Santa' could make a festive appearance yet again, though he was told to only leave the drunk tank once fully sober! Hopefully he made a successful visit to your home this Christmas.

Our final event of the year was our Wreath Making workshop with the wonderful Ali Law from Wild West Flowers. It was another superb evening, with some gorgeous festive decorations made and everyone left full of Christmas cheer!
